ELECTION TOMORROW.

Final arrangements were made by the city democratic committee last Saturday night for bringing out a large vote at the election tomorrow. The members of the committee will give their personal attention to the work of rounding up the voters and seeing that they cast their ballots. Mr. Charles C. Carlin, of this city, is the democratic nominee for the House of Representatives. Mr. E. L. Howard, of Fairfax county, is the republican candidate for the State Senate. Mr. R. Ewell Thornton, of Fairfax, is opposed by Mr. J. C. De Putron, also of Fairfax. In this city and county Mr. James R. Caton, who is the democratic candidate for the House of Delegates, will be opposed by Mr. Frank T. Evans, who is the republican contestant. The polls will be open at sunrise, 6:31, tomorrow at the following places:

First ward—Elkton Hotel.
Second ward—Old City Hotel.
Third ward—Old Fellows' Hall.
Fourth ward—Friendship engine house.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mr. James McWilliams, who for many years had been engaged in mercantile business at the northeast corner of Cameron and Royal streets, died early yesterday morning, after a lingering illness, at his country residence, Fairfax county, a short distance south of this city. Death was due to pulmonary troubles. He was in the 59th year of his age. The deceased was a member of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum, of this city. One brother, John McWilliams, and two sisters, Miss Tilly McWilliams and Miss Margaret McWilliams, survive him. Mr. McWilliams was a quiet and popular citizen, and his death is regretted by all who knew him.

Mrs. Mary E. Matthews died yesterday morning after a long illness, at her home, 501 Duke street. The deceased was fifty-seven years old. Her husband and several children survive her. The remains were forwarded yesterday evening to Bedford county for interment.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catherine I. Harper, who died last Friday evening, took place this morning at 11 o'clock from her late residence, 218 South Washington street. Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, of the Second Presbyterian Church, conducted the services, and the interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. G. Uhler, G. W. Ramsay, Wm. Campbell, Harry Griffith, C. C. Smoot and George Wise. The funeral of the late Albert McCuen, who was found dead in a small frame building on the fish wharf last Saturday morning, took place this afternoon from the residence of his son, Mr. J. Albert McCuen, at 181 South Fairfax street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Fisher.

The funeral of William Stewart, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Hayden, took place at their home, at Braddock Heights, yesterday afternoon. Rev. A. W. Myers conducted the services. The remains of Charles A. Chinn, colored, who died in Washington on Friday, were brought here yesterday and interred.

WATER COMPANY MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Alexandria Water Company was held today at which the old board of directors—Messrs. Walter Roberts, E. L. Daingerfield, George S. French, Hubert Snowden, Worth Hulfish, M. A. Ahern and J. W. Roberts—were re-elected. The reports of the officers showed a gratifying condition of the affairs of the company and of its property.

After the stockholders' meeting the directors met and re-elected the old officers, viz., Walter Roberts, president; George Uhler, secretary and treasurer; C. A. Power, superintendent, and Jas. Ewelch, collector.

CAPTAIN POSEY ARRESTED.

Capt. Frederick Posey, of the Norfolk and Washington steamer Newport News, has waived examination and has been held for the federal grand jury in Norfolk by U. S. Commissioner Stephenson upon the charge of flying the U. S. mail flag when his boat had no mail aboard. Capt. Posey gave bond for his appearance in court next week. The Newport News, which is now making day trips, is a mail steamer when running at night. Capt. Posey said he did not know he was violating the law. He put up the mail flag simply for decorative purposes, and lowered it, he said, upon the first intimation that it was wrong for him to raise it.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

A young man living in the southeastern section of this city, who had been arrested by Officer Knight charged with stealing over 70 pounds of copper wire from the Alexandria Electric Works and selling it to a junk dealer, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. The accused made no denial of the charge and was fined $10. Another young man, who was party to the theft, frankly confessed the part he took in the transaction, saying he was drunk at the time, and the company urged no charge against him.

RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to the Schuler Beef Company ran away on King street, between Columbus and Washington, about 9 o'clock this morning and ran down a buggy in which Mr. T. W. Roberts was seated. The wagon was thrown on its side and the buggy was considerably damaged. Mr. Roberts escaped injury, and a colored boy who was seated in the wagon jumped out when the horse became frightened and also escaped being hurt.

STOLEN ARTICLES RECOVERED.

Raymond Briscoe, the youth who stole a number of articles in Fairfax county last week, together with a wagon, goat and harness in this city, is still at the station house. He will be taken to Fairfax tomorrow morning. Justice Payne reported this morning that he had recovered the goat, harness and wagon. He also found a valuable bull dog belonging to this city which had gotten astray.

FINED FIFTY DOLLAR.

Chief Goods and Officers Garvey and Ferguson yesterday arrested a colored man named Rufus Robinson, living in the northeastern section of this city, charged with selling lager beer on Sunday and without a license. The case came before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning. A number of colored men who had been caught in the place, some of whom were drunk when taken in custody, testified that a club met at the place on Sunday for the purpose of drinking beer, and that the liquor was purchased on Saturday night. The evidence of the witnesses did not agree, however, in some material points. The officers testified that colored men went into the place on Sunday sober and emerged in a drunken condition. Arthur Robinson, son of the accused, acknowledged that he conducted the room in which the liquor was distributed. Justice Caton in summing up the case said the object of the Sunday laws was to prevent a nuisance on that day by the distribution of intoxicants, and he would therefore dismiss Rufus Robinson and five Arthur $50 and in addition give him a sixty-day term in jail. The fine was paid, and later the jail sentence was remitted when Mr. John P. Robinson appeared and signified his desire to be committed surety for the accused in the sum of $100 for his future good behavior for a term of one year.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

Docket called and cases set:
J. Louis Loose vs. Southern Railway Co.; case fixed for trial at special term, December 10.

Robert M. Cassiere vs. R. F. & P. R'y. Co.; case fixed for trial November 14 and Governor requested to designate a judge.

Eliza Sinclair vs. Adams Express Co.; dismissal agreed.

The Winchester Memorial Hospital Co. vs. the Board of Handley Trustees (a corporation); arguments to be heard November 8.

Faduech Cooperage Co. vs. the Mt. Vernon Fire Insurance Company of Alexandria; rule awarded to employ counsel.

Ellis Lee Broaders vs. Lillie B. Carlin et al.; decree confirming sale to Robert S. Barrett of house and lot on Fairfax street, between King and Prince.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Sylvester Quail, charged with stealing copper wire belonging to the Alexandria Electric Light Company, was fined $10.

Robert Padgett, charged with being drunk in the street, was sent to jail for 30 days.

Eugene Braxton, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

George Lomas, colored, charged with a similar offense, was fined $5.

Benjamin Hamilton, colored, charged with larceny, was sent to jail for 10 days.

Arthur Robinson, colored, charged with selling lager beer on Sunday, was fined $50 and sent to jail for 60 days.

Samuel Bateman, charged with being drunk on the street, was dismissed.

THE PASSION PLAY.

The Passion Play, in moving pictures, was presented this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock by the Alexandria Amusement Company on King street near Pitt. There will be other exhibitions at 6:45, 8 and 9:15 tonight. Each entertainment lasts an hour. The pictures will be exhibited at the same hours tomorrow and Wednesday. The pictures are realistic, instructive and edifying, and the company producing them should be liberally patronized.

PROPERTY SALES.

The following sales have been made by M. B. Harlow & Co., Inc., in Cottage Park: Van C. X. Potter, of Washington, three lots upon which will be erected three handsome cottages.

Mitchell Hancock, one lot, upon which will be erected a cottage.

J. R. N. Curtin, one lot, upon which will be erected a cottage.

John Kirkpatrick, a house and three lots.

MR. BRYAN'S LECTURE.

Reserved seats for the lecture, "The Old World and Its Ways," by Hon. William Jennings Bryan at the Opera House Friday, November 22, were placed on sale today at Edgar Ward's drug store. General admission tickets will be had at several other drug stores. Alexandrians will have the opportunity of hearing Mr. Bryan at a most interesting period in his career.

OPERA HOUSE.

As an added attraction at the Opera House tonight, Mr. Pat Rooney, live of the Keith circuit and a member of the famous family of that name, will sing. Tomorrow night the city and State election returns, as far as possible, will be announced.

NAVAJO.

Navajo, owned by Mr. Courtland H. Smith, won the Pimlico Autumn Steeplechase run on Saturday last at Pimlico, Md. Navajo's race that afternoon confirms his good performance in New York, and the jumper that beats him at Bannock will have to step some.

MEN'S MEETING.

The men's meeting in the M. E. Church South yesterday afternoon was well attended and enjoyed by all present. Rev. W. M. Poind delivered the address, his subject being, "The Man Behind the Gun."

BANKS TO CLOSE.

Tomorrow being election day the banks of the city under the State laws will be closed on that day.

KIDNAPPING FRUSTRATED.

I. L. Findham, a slick detective, is employed by a scoundrel to kidnap a beautiful child. He finds her playing with a number of children, gets her in places his hand over her mouth and is in the act of carrying her off, when Franz Von, Altenheim a lover of children, appears upon the scene. What transpires between the detective and Von Altenheim will be beautifully pictured in the "Merry Cobbler," Opera House November 12 and 13.

Trials of Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people without a penny's cost—the great value of the scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. George French has returned from a visit to her son, Mrs. Longfield, at Oremont, Albemarle county. Lieut. James Smith of the police force has gone to Rappahannock county to spend his vacation. During his absence Private John T. Roberts will serve as lieutenant.

Postmaster Thomas Burroughs attended a meeting of the presidential postmasters in Richmond last week.

Mr. J. Carlin Creighton has gone to East St. Louis, Ill., to attend the wedding of his son, J. Augustus Creighton, and Miss Hazel Carroll, which will take place there on the 9th instant.

Mr. J. L. Crupper and family, who spent the summer in Alexandria county, have returned to this city and will make their home at No. 818 King street.

Mr. Roy Stephenson, a prominent attorney of Winchester, was in this city today, the guest of Judge Norton.

RALLY DAY SERVICES.

The rally day services in the Methodist Protestant Church yesterday, were interesting and well attended. In the morning Mr. James E. Alexander, of the M. E. Church South, delivered an address to the Sunday-school. In the evening Rev. P. O. Crouse, pastor of Congress Street M. P. Church, Washington made an address on "The Two Essentials in Christian Endeavor Work."

UPPER KING STREET PAVING.

The board of supervisors of Alexandria county, representatives of the Washington-Southern Railway Company, and the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company, will meet Mayor Paff in conference within the next few days to devise plans to complete the paving of the three remaining squares on King street to the union passenger station.

ARRESTS.

Gilbert Simpson was arrested this morning charged with contempt by Justice A. J. Payne, of Fairfax, while the latter was holding court in a store at the corner of Franklin and Patrick streets. He was disorderly when brought to the station house and was held on two charges.

James Reed was arrested this morning on suspicion of stealing a lot of clothing.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

John T. Nalls vs. R. A. Howdershall et al.; chancery; decree confirming sale to Charles T. Martin of house and lot No. 111 North Alfred street.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $5.00 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alternative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

We have received from Mr. H. E. Pickin who is now in the Canal Zone, a copy of the Canal Record.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, afternoon at 3 o'clock in Confederate Veterans' building.

A meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight for the purpose of electing a successor to Mr. Stewart Jones, who recently resigned as a member of the force.

The glass in the window of the office of Mr. L. D. Lyles, Clerk of the Market, was broken last night, presumably by someone bent on robbery. So far as is known, nothing was removed from the place.

It is understood that a number of Washington capitalists have, through Mr. F. L. Slaymaker, secured an option on the Shooter's Hill property, west of this city, and contemplate laying it off for villa sites.

A meeting of the board of supervisors of Alexandria county was held at the county courthouse Saturday. A commission was appointed to view a proposed road connecting Mashpot road with the Leeburg turnpike.

Mrs. Leroy Beach was knocked down by a strange man while in her yard, 108 Prince street, early last Saturday night. Mrs. Beach had gone to the woods when she encountered the trespasser. Mrs. Beach is unable to tell whether the man was white or colored.

Dr. J. E. Gilbert secretary of the American Society of Religious Education, of Washington, delivered a lecture at the Alfred Street Baptist Church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His subject was "The Bible." There was a large attendance and the lecture was interesting and practical.

The game of football that was to have been played Saturday between the Gibson Regulars and A. A. C. for the championship of Alexandria will be played Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Colro's. A great rivalry exists between these two teams and a good game is promised to all who attend.

Don't miss the show at the Opera House tonight. A Preserving Love, Old Masters, and False Coiners, in motion pictures. Illustrated song, "Honey Boy," by Mr. Rooney and Miss Reamer, Mrs. Clark, pianist. A show that will please everyone. To-day night election returns will be announced from the stage.
